

MARY QUILLINAN, D.O.
DIABETES QUARTERLY STAR

Mary Quillinan, DO has been chosen for the 4th quarter Diabetes Star of Excellence Award. Dr. Quillinan received her certification from the American Board of Internal Medicine.

She completed her internal medicine residency at Suburban General Hospital in Norristown, PA; JFK Memorial Hospital; and University Medical Center in Stratford, NJ. She received her Doctor of Osteopathy from Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine.

She presently is a physician at Clark and Daughtery. She has been at Clark and Daughtery since April 1999. She has also worked at Humana Health Care, Blountstown Family Practice, Suburban General Hospital, Brookesville Regional Hospital and Coastal Health Care.

She is well loved by her patients. She has a passion for diabetes and has one of the largest practices of diabetic patients in the area. She constantly strives to give all of her patients the best care possible. She is a great asset to our hospital as well as to our community. Thank you so much for everything you do for us as well as your patients.

You are a true role model!